

Rosemary Cox is a Senior Consultant at DCI Consulting Group, headquartered in Washington, DC, where she provides consultation specific to equal employment opportunity and affirmative action statutes and regulations. Her area of expertise includes AAP reporting, recruitment process and metrics, strategic audit discussions, mock audits, compliance and diversity/inclusion training and strategy.

Rosemary holds a MSA in Human Resources from Central Michigan University, has senior certifications through, SHRM, HRCI, AAAED and the State of Ohio. With 20 years of human resource compliance experience, she supports a variety of corporations in various industries, writes for the DCI Blog, conducts webinars and training.

Rosemary is a member of several professional organizations including the Ohio Industry Liaison Group (OILG), Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), American Association for Access Equity and Diversity (AAAED).