

Jeremy Yubeta, EEOC Enforcement Manager

Jeremy Yubeta is the Enforcement Manager for the Phoenix Office of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). He is responsible for planning, directing, coordinating and monitoring all enforcement and case development activities of the Phoenix Enforcement Unit. Prior to taking on this role, Jeremy was an Enforcement Supervisor with the EEOC for twelve years and an Investigator for ten years. Jeremy earned his Bachelors Degree in Justice Studies from Arizona State University. He is also former U.S. Army Counterintelligence Agent and a veteran of Operation Enduring Freedom. In his spare time, Jeremy coaches youth hockey. He has been a High School and Travel Hockey Coach in the valley for more than a decade.